Notice to Association Football Clubs of Barre Her Double.

"I knew no one for four weeks, when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter of Pittsburg, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney disorders. At the Red Cross Pharmacy and Revising Old Town Records.

The Hardwick town clerk has been revising the record of births, marriages, and deaths, and arranging them as now required by law. The whole number of births in town since the first on record in 1857 is 1,436. The first birth in town was October 3, 1794, Miriam Sinclair.
The revised record of births and deaths dates back only to 1857. The largest number of births in any year was 79, in 1904; the smallest, 11, in 1843. The marriage records date from the first recorded, and number 1,122.

Under the heading, "Sundry Matters of Record Directed by Law", in the handwriting of Mark Norris, first town clerk of Hardwick, the following record appears:

State of Vermont,
Caledonia District, ss:
Be it remembered that at Hardwick in the county aforesaid on the 23d day of August, 1797, Samuel True and Zarah Cheever, both of the aforesaid Hardwick, county and state aforesaid, were duly joined in marriage by one Amos Fuller, pastor of the Church of Christ in Hardwick.

The deaths since 1857 number 1,231.
The greatest number was in 1904, 59; the smallest number, 10, the same in 1861 and 1896. The first death in town was that of Israel Sanborn, October 18, 1794.

Vermont Girl Charged With Forgery.

Miss Alice Moore, of South Williamstown, Mass., was arrested in North Adams, Mass., Friday on a complaint charging her with forgery. It is alleged that she found a blank check book of the Williamstown National Bank some time ago, and that she had been writing checks for small sums, using various names, and attempted to pass them.

Friday it is alleged that she tried to have one cashed in the hardware store of Burlingame & Darby. The firm investigated and on learning that the check was not good notified the police and her arrest followed. Miss Moore is seventeen years old, and attractive in appearance. She went to South Williamstown from Pownal some time ago.

About 125 tons of scrap iron, consisting of the engine, boilers, walking beam and other machinery taken out of the old steamer Vermont at Shelburne Harbor has been sold by the C. T. Co. to the Security Steel & Iron Company of Troy, N. Y. The material is now being loaded into canal boats for shipment.

There is now nothing left of the old steamer Vermont but separate timbers and this scrap iron. The process of dismantling the boat has been going on from time to time at the Harbor since she went out of commission three years ago.

The extent to which the modern up-to-date circus employee is on to his job was exemplified in St. Albans Saturday when a former city official attempted to secure free passes to the circus by the exhibition of a used-to-be badge.
The circus man smiled blandly and explained to the ticket seeker that he didn't admit that city officials had any call on him anyway but that the party in question had certainly no claim as the circus refused to recognize has-beens.
